ARGO

stands for expertise in all aspects of Leadership.

30 Years of pragmatic solutions and sustainable change for 700 Organizations and over 2000 projects in 36 Countries worldwide!

Our Promise:

ARGO

develops leaders and organizations through more than just skills training:

We combine practical skills training with sustainable change in mindset.

This leads to leadership in action and thus to genuine organizational transformation.

Or briefly:

ARGO LEADERSHIP.

Training Skills,
Transforming Minds.

LEADING Organizations.

We support leaders in steering the organization

- in team development and conflict resolution
- in advancing corporate and leadership culture
- in developing and implementing vision, mission & guiding principles
- in implementing operational excellence
- in establishing an organization-wide service and sales culture
- in translating strategy into the organization's mindset
- in designing and managing transformation processes
- in conducting employee surveys
- in personnel selection and talent development

Our fields of work:

ARGO LEADERSHIP.

Training Skills,
Transforming Minds.

LEADING Others.

We support leaders in leading their employees

- through holistic leadership & management programs
- by imparting psychological skills such as emotional intelligence, SIZE, or CliftonStrengths
- through short impulse trainings on key skills like inspiration & presentation, feedback & conflict, and more
- through strength-based training for emerging leaders and high potentials
- in programs for sales leadership and metrics-driven sales training
- by facilitating customized team workshops

Our fields of work:

ARGO LEADERSHIP.

Training Skills,
Transforming Minds.

LEADING Ourselves.

We help leaders manage themselves effectively

- through coaching during role changes and with unclear responsibilities
- by supporting conflict situations with guided processes
- in coaching on self-management, personal development, and clarification topics
- through strength-based coaching using CliftonStrengths
- in supervision of specific cases
- on resilience and stress management topics
- as support in talent programs and change processes

The Result?

Better results,

employee retention

and a stronger employer brand!
